

All Will Be Well

Capo 4      G                      G

Trust the past to God's Mercy.

                    C                      G

Trust the present to God's Love.

                    C                      G                      Em

Trust the future to God's providence.

                    G                      D

All will be well. All will be well.

                    C      -      G

All will be well.

                    C

Come to me all who are weary

                    G                      D

And I will give you rest.

Take my yoke. My yoke is easy.

My burden is light.

Learn from me, for I am gentle,

And humble of heart.
